

AUGSBURG COLLEGE
Assistant Professor of Social Work

The Augsburg College Social Work Department invites applications for an Assistant Professor, tenure-track faculty position effective September 1, 2008. Candidates will teach across the curriculum in both the Bachelor of Social Work and Master of Social Work programs. Class schedules may include evenings and weekends. Areas of specialization should include generalist practice, macro practice, and/or research methods. A dynamic and innovative department whose mission is “to develop social work professionals for practice that promotes social justice and empowerment,” we are strongly invested in recruiting colleagues with demonstrated experience with, knowledge of, and sensitivity to the needs of culturally diverse and economically disadvantaged populations. Responsibilities include teaching, academic advising, research, community and professional service.

An MSW is required; earned doctorate in social work or closely related field preferred (ABDs considered if within one year of completion). Minimum of two years post-MSW practice experience and demonstrated teaching excellence at the college level also required. It is expected that the successful candidate will obtain social work licensure in the State of Minnesota by the first year review.

Augsburg is a private, co-educational college of the liberal and professional arts affiliated with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
