

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

40th National Institute for Social Work and Human Services in Rural Areas @ USD

National Rural Social Work Caucus

Building Rural and Frontier Areas

July 15-17, 2015 – Vermillion, South Dakota

Consistent with the long tradition of this conference, we invite a wide variety of proposals.

We are particularly interested in proposals that address the following topics that relate to rural, frontier, and Native American reservation areas:

- Improving health and human services
- Sustainable development
- Community organizing
- Overcoming health disparities
- Effective practice approaches
- Building social capital

Students, practitioners, educators, and researchers are invited and encouraged to share their experiences and research findings at this conference. Presentation formats will include:

- Traditional oral presentations: 60 minutes with 15 minutes for questions/discussion
- Short oral presentations: 2-3 presentations may be grouped into the 75 minute block
- Poster presentations: 90 minute session, Friday at lunch
